CRITERIA FOR LIFE MEMBER NOMINATION

With the advent of incorporation and of professionalism much has changed in the landscape of the Randwick DRUFC. Within this new environment the Life Members Association, chaired by Peter Court, has wrestled with one particular dilemma, among others, and that was with the processes and criteria involved in the annual consideration of nominations for the award of Life Member, the Club's highest honour.

With input from the Life Members Awards Subcommittee, under the successive chairmanships of Terry Reid and Jeff Sayle, the Association believed that it achieved its goals in amending By-law 6 of the Club Constitution so as to deliver, in particular, criteria that were
